

Sucker

Europe

She's worked hard to enjoy the weekend
All glammed up to describe the feeling
Making her way through the crowd
Something is driving her wild

She's turning up the stereo she wants everybody to know
She's fixing to see the show
She's a suh suh suh sucker for a guitar hero

Her obsession is legendary
And all her boyfriends temporary
Her idea of a perfect man
Plays a custom through a marshall amp

She's turning up the stereo she wants everybody to know
She's fixing to see the show
She's a suh suh suh sucker for a guitar hero

God knows she can't controll her weekness
Sometimes she settles for the local talent
And everyone knows it's a phase
Just happy to kill some time
Cause she'll be back in her rightful place
When those trucks roll into town

And now she won't need a stereo
Yeah cause everybody will know
That she's right there watching the show
She'll be throwing all her love around
Now the boys are back in town
Until she just can't take it no more
She's a suh suh suh sucker for a guitar hero
