Surrender

Evanescence

Is this real enough for you You were so confused Now that you've decided to stay We'll remain together

You can't abandon me You belong to me

Breathe in and take my life in you No longer myself only you There's no escaping me, my love Surrender

Darling, there's no sense in running You know I will find you Everything is perfect now We can live forever

You can't abandon me You belong me

Breathe in and take my life in you... (2x)
