

Your eyes shine bright like a Jesus nitelite
I'd like to touch your positive vibes
Indifferent eyes won't give me the time
May I help put aside your moral fiber

You're dressed in white my face is white
I'd like to be a colorful sight to see
I'm only here in background
Here on the ground lies my head
I sleep and then I wake make sounds
And go to bed and wake again

The time is right but I feel all wrong
It wastes away until it's gone
The time is right but I feel all wrong
It fades away and now you're gone

Yeah my time is right and still I feel all wrong
It wastes away and now you're gone

You're walking by I'm standing by
Behind the light I'm standing by
By and by

The time is right but I feel all wrong
It wastes away until it's gone
The time is right but I feel all wrong
It fades away and now you're gone

Yeah my time is right but still I feel all wrong
It wastes away until it's gone and now it's gone
Here we go

Yeah, yeah
