

Nothing To Say

Eve

Don't you hate it when you tryna do everything you can
Like forget about yourself and cater to your man, right
Thought you had a plan but I guess you didn't plan right
He was on his own shit. guess you didn't plan alike
You was tryna love him and he was tryna pull away
Friends start "he was nothin of a man" said you was a fool to stay
You know they was right but of course you tried to play it off
Tried to fake it perfect tried to play his game you bet you lost
Knew about the phonecalls knew about the girls
While pray that he would see different. you up in his world now
Please believe you never change a dog to a cat you can only
Keep it movin keep it selfish that's that yeah

I was wrong you right. boy, over you I got nothing to say
Why you wanna fight? me and you were through we got nothing to say
Where were you last night? you think I'm tellin you I got nothing to say
Girl come home tonight. I'm not feelin you I got nothin to say

Ayo this a little story about a chick that's in love
She was on cloud nine thought she had that shit from above
And it took while time just to figure out who he was
He had her believin she was the only thing she could love
She gave up everything friends, fam that's how it does
You know them lies keep you blind and the sex you drug
One more chance how it felt the truth in his hug
And then you left again by yourself tears in your tub
Know what I'm talkin bout ladies get your strengtheness on
We been all through it. no, you aint goin through it alone
So imma keep it goin you can just keep listening
Cmon it's be a therapy so when he call you up sing along
You say

I was wrong you right. boy, over you I got nothing to say
Why you wanna fight? me and you were through we got nothing to say
Where were you last night? you think I'm tellin you I got nothing to say
Girl come home tonight. I'm not feelin you I got nothin to say

All I ever wanted all I ever needed the only one I loved was you

Your love has started off but it was short live
All shit I wanted forever could never do it
Me thinkin we perfect together here go the real shit
Only saw her left feelin hella stupid
I aint in a fantasies noo fuck cupid
But I'm take it all as a lesson I'm getting through it
Really though it's his loss, his pain
Knew he had a chick now he goin insane
He tryna get me back alotta beggin and peadin
Alotta phonecalls, flowers not the shit that I'm needin
It wont work now you never fool me again
You nerve cared til I left no more tryna pretend
He said

I was wrong you right. boy, over you I got nothing to say
Why you wanna fight? me and you were through we got nothing to say
Where were you last night? you think I'm tellin you I got nothing to say
Girl come home tonight. I'm not feelin you I got nothin to say
