Take Me as I Am

Baby, don't turn out the light I wanna see you look at me Whisper only truth tonight Not just promises and empty fantasies

I don't need a bed of roses 'Cause roses wither away All I really need is honesty From someone with a strong heart A gentle hand Who'll take me as I am

Baby, I need for you to know Just exactly how I feel Fiery passions come and go I'd trade a million pretty words For one touch that is real

I don't need a bed of roses 'Cause roses wither away All I really need is honesty From someone with a strong heart A gentle hand Who'll take me as I am

From someone with a strong heart A gentle hand Who'll take me as I am Faith Hill
