

Everytime I'm Kissing You

Faron Young

Everytime I'm kissing you I think of you kissing him
I came home and I found you in the arms of a friend
I should have turned and walked away when I saw you kissing him
You beg me to forgive you but I wonder if I can

'Cause everytime I'm kissing you I think of you kissing him
You even said you were ashamed but it hurts me just the same And I'll have to pay the cost cause I can't hold the love that'
s lost
I thought I was the only one but you don't know the harm you've done
'Cause everytime I'm kissing you I think of you kissing him

You even said you were ashamed...
