

I Can't Tell My Heart

Faron Young

I can't tell my heart that you don't love me I can't say the love we had was blind
It's true you left dear for another but I can't tell my heart that you're that kind
Each night I hug my pillow I make believe it's you
But it can't take the place of a lovely girl like you
I can't tell my heart that you don't love me
So I'll just fool my heart the way that you fooled me
I was blinded by your charm and glamor I thought I'd found the love so true and real
Now I will pay the price in tears and sorrow
And there's no words to tell you how I feel
You just laughed and told me to find another love
But instead of this I pray I'll win your love
So I can't tell my heart that you don't love me
I'll just fool my heart the way that you fooled me
