

Let Me Be Real

Fedde Le Grand

let me be real let me be real
So I can feel, I can feel what the world wont reveal to me Just the thoughts in my head got me thinkin askin myself oh what am i living thoughts can be such a heavy burden its time to tear down these curtains let the truth be heard give it to me word for word that's all i really ask for i can handle it, for better or worse now tell me what do you live for ooooh
i want the truth yeah so i can feel yeah
let me be real let me be real
I want nothing but the truth yeah
so I can feel I can feel
so I can feel I can feel
