

First Love

FFH

I am empty, thirty, weary
Coming back to you with empty hands
You are waiting for me you fill me gently
Bring me back to you once again

You are, you are my first love Jesus
I come just as I am
You are, you are my first love Jesus
Let me fall in love again!

I am tired, broken, helpless
Calling out to you with all my heart
You are right here with me steady, faithful
Calling out to me with open arms

You are, you are my first love Jesus
I come just as I am
You are, you are my first love Jesus
Let me fall in love again!

You are, you are my first love Jesus
I come just as I am
You are, you are my first love Jesus
Let me fall in love again!

I am desperate, needy, hopeless
Holding on to you for every breath
You will be my fortress ,strength and weakness
Holding on to me you give me rest

You are, you are my first love Jesus
I come just as I am
You are, you are my first love Jesus
Let me fall in love again!

You are, you are my first love Jesus
I come just as I am
You are, you are my first love Jesus
Let me fall in love again!
Let me fall in love again!
Let me fall in love again!
Let me fall in love again!
