If not for Christ I would surely fall Over myself and bear the fault Of all my deeds so terrible If not for Christ I would surely fall If not for Christ I would surely fall

If not for Christ I would surely break Under the weight of my mistakes
And in my sin be kept away
If not for Christ I would surely break
If not for Christ I would surely break

It was for me He bled and died
It was my sword that pierced His side
It was my name that Jesus cried
When on that tree He bled and died
It was for me He bled and died

And now to Christ I owe it all He is to me a tower strong Salvation does to me belong It is to Christ I owe it all It is to Christ I owe it all
