Sometimes it seems the world's unraveling around us We fear it all may one day come undone We can't forget the One who came before us To forgive the past and bring hope for what's to come

When it all comes crashing down The cross still stands alone And on this our faith is built And our courage is made strong

When the world falls apart And you fear for your heart There's a tower of peace It's still the cross

So bring your sick and your poor And your longing for more To the place of relief It's still the cross There is hope for the lost It's still the cross

Sometimes it seems that I have been forgotten I don't know how I will make it on my own But the One who said I will never be forsaken He still hears my prayer and I will never be alone

Though the world may not confess
You and Your holiness
One day all will see
5You in all Your majesty
And the cross will stand alone
As the place where You made known
Your love for all mankind
Till then in it we'll hide
