

Hey old man got something for you
Change your mind gonna make you take it
Your mistake is something you own
I'm the one who's gonna take it
Hey old man got something for you
Hey old man got a real good tip
Something's wrong and you don't know it

When will you learn
I'm not your boy
You don't look back
Why do I pick up your slack

That's just fine just leave it like that
Bust your wallet while i break my back
Stay alive with your life support
You know me I'll drink of that
Hey old man got something for you
Hey old man got a real good tip
Something's wrong and I guess you've blown it
Thanks a lot 'cuz now I own it

When will you learn
I'm not your boy
You don't look back
Why do I pick up your slack
When will you learn
I'm not your boy
You don't look back
Why do I pick up your slack

When I'm sleeping in my bed
Got your picture in my hands
God you are so truly old
Thanks a lot my future's sold

When will you learn
I'm not your boy
When will you learn
I'm not your boy
Hey old man got something for you
Hey old man got a real good tip
Hey old man got something for you
Hey old man got a real good tip
