Fishbone

It take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
King Kong will fall as will the great wall
And the whole damn town will crumble

It take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
King Kong will fall as will the great wall
And the whole damn town will crumble

There's a war goin' on
Don't know why I call the fight to dawn
Riotin', lootin' suburbia
Urban rowdies, disturbia, yeah

Last call, last call from home
Can't stop Godzilla
Can't stop Godzilla

It take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
King Kong will fall as will the great wall
And the whole damn town will crumble

It take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
King Kong will fall as will the great wall
Let the whole damn town will crumble

There's a war goin' on
Might as well dance to the devil
Godzilla just slain
'Cause of freeze dried Godzilla farty

Last call, last call for help call
It's coming your way, run, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
It's coming your way, hey, hey

It take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
Take a big bean but butte, we'll surely rumble
King Kong will fall as will the great wall
And the whole damn town will crumble

We are on our way to a land of fairytale
We are on our way, we're on a journey, yeah
We are on our way to a land of fairytale
We are on our way, we're on a journey, yeah
