

So Sail On

Flogging Molly

Time to take a breath once more
Before the hammer blow
Wrap myself around the veil
Against the bitter cold
Body bruised from selfishness
The penny dropped too late i guess

So sail on
To all now born
So sail on to you

Raise my glass to all before
True friends I have known
Take me to my virgin grave
Beneath the haunting snow
Nothing left but fare thee well
I wish you health, so please take care

So sail on
To all now born
So sail on to you

So sail on
To all now born
So sail on to you

So sail on
To all now born
So sail on to you

So sail on
To all now born
So sail on to you
