Dear, my closest friend I'm writing because I miss you so much At night, I'd always cry

The stillness still reminds me of When we first fell in love
And I miss that so much
Dear, my closest friend

Dear, my closest friend I remember when You asked me to stay And I just walked away

I apologize
And then my letter sent
I lost that moment
I lost that moment

Seconds at a time
Seconds at a time
I wait for your answer
But I already know
Your hand was always mine

Your hand was always mine Your hand was always mine

Dear, my closest friend I'm writing because I miss you so much
