Top of the world, bottom of the ocean Top of the world, bottom of the ocean They built you up and broke you down again So now you hope to beat the surf in

Cause the future is not what you see It's not where you've been to at all The future is not what you see It's not where you've been to at all

The future is not what it used to be, used to be The future is not what it used to be, used to be

Top of the world, bottom of the ocean Top of the world, bottom of the ocean They lit you up and found the ground again So now you know to beat the surf in

They buried the gold, your ancestry's sold and left Just the residue
They buried the gold, your ancestry's sold and left Just the mist of you

Now what's happened to you, look what's happened to you What's happened to you

Now that spring is finally here Your hollow heart, your hollow heart Drive through the forest and into the night Away from the city, away from the light

Hollow heart, your hollow heart You know And we're worlds apart And we're worlds apart

They gouge you out, they dug you in They took the name right out of your mouth

Hollow heart, your hollow heart You know Worlds apart And we're worlds apart Into yourself past of it
Into yourself
Into yourself
