

Uh Oh

Frankmusik

3 months gone and now I know where I'm going
Got the sun come up and this ain't just another morning
Got an ash tray full of every thought I had of you
And this empty glass that I use to hold my past

You didn't stop at nothing
No you didn't do right
Seems you had to break something
The only man in sight
Cos' now I'm only holding
Yes I'm holding onto tears
Cos' now I'm only folding
As I watch you disappear

You'll say you love me
But you ain't in love with me
I can't blame ya when I barely like who I be
I'm awake all night and I sleep all day
Now its 5 am and my heart goes

Uh oh uh oh uh oh
Uh oh uh oh uh oh

6 months gone and I now the cracks are all going
Watch the moon go down
And with it I can see you falling
Got a phone book full of every girl that wasn't you
And this white wash room that was meant for only two

You'll say you love me
But you ain't in love with me
I can't blame ya when I barely like who I be
I'm awake all night and I sleep all day
Now its 5 am and my heart goes

Uh oh uh oh uh oh
Uh oh uh oh uh oh

You'll say you love me
You'll say you love me
You'll say you love me
But you ain't in love with me
You'll say you love me
You'll say you love me
You'll say you love me
But you ain't in love with me

No no no no no no oh no
She wont be in love with me
She wont be in love with me
No no no no no no no no
Woah

You'll say you loved me
But you ain't in love with me
I'm awake all night and I sleep all day

Now its 5 am and my heart goes

Uh oh uh oh uh oh

Uh oh uh oh uh oh
