

Between The Lines

Fu Manchu

Take your time - you're way too slow
Push it back, your self control
All by yourself, you change your mind
As you will read between the lines
The lies, lies

So far down, you're trapped inside
The lies, lies

Close your hand so tight
Can't believe your eyes
Close your hand so tight
As you read between the lines

Move your feet, they pass you by
Hesitate and fall behind

Lies, lies
Save me please, yeah, one more time
The lies, lies
The lies
