Mary Pretends

Mary pretends she's so insane So insane, so insane Mary pretends she's so insane So insane, so insane

She just sits back and laughs at the pain Laughs at the pain, laughs at the pain Mary pretends she's so insane So insane, so insane

Falling down of her mind Gives her everything she's wanted from the world Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive

She's gotta know what it feels like She wants to know how to fly She wants to know what it feels like to die Goodbye

Mary pretends she's so insane So insane, so insane Mary pretends she's so insane So insane, so insane

She just sits back and laughs at the pain Laughs at the pain, laughs at the pain Mary pretends she's so insane So insane, so insane

Falling down of her mind Gives her everything she's wanted from the world Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive

She's gotta know what it feels like She wants to know how to fly She wants to know what it feels like to die Goodbye

Falling down of her mind Gives her everything she's wanted from the world Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive

She's gotta know what it feels like She wants to know how to fly She wants to know what it feels like to die Goodbye, goodbye, time to fly
