I'm standing in Brooklyn just waiting for something to happen. I can't help but love thinking that everyone doesn't get it. To my left there's a window Where did I go?
My reflection just planted two rows of coal
And bad ideas, but ideas nonetheless and so
```

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

I happen to stumble upon a chapel last night.

And I can't help but back up when I think of what happens inside.

I got friends looked in boxes. And no way to live.

But you call it a sin. Isn't up to them.

After all, after all I thought we were all your children,

But I will die for my own sins thanks a lot.

We'll rise up ourselves thanks for nothing at all,

so up off the ground up for fathers who are nothing but dust now.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)
I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.
I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)
I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

Maybe I should learn to shut my mouth.

I am over twenty-five and I can't make a name for myself some nights
I break down and cry
I'm lucky that my father's still alive he's been fighting all his li

I'm lucky that my father's still alive he's been fighting all his lif  ${\sf e}$ and if this is all I've ever know then may his soul live on forever i n  ${\rm my}$  song.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)
I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.
I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)
I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

In front of the other one In front of the other one Just a better place to die.
