I set all my regrets on fire
Cause I know I'll never take the time
To unpack my missteps and call all of our friends
I figured they would take your side

I make the bed, just not that well Your name comes up a lot When I talk to my mom Oh, I think she can tell

I was out on the town
So I came to your window last night
I tried not to throw stones
But I wanted to come inside
Now I'm causing a scene
Thinking you need a reason to smile
Oh no, what have I done?
There's no one to keep me warm

So maybe I should put up a fight I'll call them back and borrow a box knife So I can learn to live with all the stupid shit I've been doing since '99

And I know I could be more clever And I know I could be more strong But I'm waiting for the day You'll come back and say "Hey, maybe I should change my mind"

I drink a lot
I'm not sure if that's new
But these days when I wake up
From a night I forgot
I just wish that it never came true

I was out on the town
So I came to your window last night
I tried not to throw stones
But I wanted to come inside
Now I'm causing a scene
Thinking you need a reason to smile
Oh no, what have I done?
There's no one to keep me warm

And I know I could be more clever And I know I could be more strong And I know I could be more clever And I know I could be more clever

I knew there'd come a day
When all was said and done
(And I know I could be more clever)
Everything I was
Is everything but gone
(And I know I could be more strong)
All my big mistakes

Are bouncing off your wall

(And I know I could be more clever)

The bottles never break

The sun will never comes

(And I know I could be more clever)

So come on let me in

I will be the sun

(And I know I could be more clever)

I will wake you up

I am who I was

(And I know I could be more strong)

So beat up your heart, oh beat up your heart, oh beat up your heart

(And I know I could be more clever)

And I know I could be more clever

I was out on the town
So I came to your window last night
I tried not to throw stones
But I wanted to come inside
Now I'm causing a scene
Thinking you need a reason to smile
Oh no, what have I done?
There's no one to keep me warm
