

Not Sorry

Gabriella Cilmi

I see daggers in your eyes
I guess I'm not surprised
That fast fall from grace left my body paralyzed
Got nothing left to loose
If you're looking for some truth
Have you realized what you need
I can't provide for you

I can tell you're not sorry this time
Every thought like a knife
Every word takes your life
I can tell you're not sorry this time
Every touch you black out
Every kiss takes you down

Gave you everything I got
But that wasn't enough
You used to be polite said
I used up all my trust
So no matter how I feel
The glass about to spill
Your smoke up in my face
I think I need you still

You put a smile across my face
Then you tore it apart
You put a smile across my face
Then you tore it apart

I can tell you're not sorry this time
Every thought like a knife
Every word takes your life
I can tell you're not sorry this time
Every touch you black out
Every kiss takes you down
[x2]

Here I am lingering like a feather in the wind
Come over to my side take a minute to be kind
I heard it's a sin to leave somebody dangling
Come over to my side take a minute to be kind

You put a smile across my face
Then you tore it apart
You put a smile across my face
Then you tore it apart

I can tell you're not sorry this time
Every thought like a knife
Every word takes your life
I can tell you're not sorry this time
