

Surrender

Gary Moore

Surrender, surrender,
surrender, surrender.

Look at me and look at you,
the things we put each other through.
And every day that we're apart,
the scars run deeper through my heart.

Surrender, surrender,
to our love so tender.

Now that I anticipate,
when I'm with you the world can wait.
Heaven's door is open wide
when it's you I feel inside.

Surrender, surrender,
to our love so tender.

Look at me and look at you,
the things we put each other through.
And every day that we're apart,
the scars run deeper through my heart.

Surrender, surrender,
to our love so tender.
Surrender, surrender,
to our love so tender.
