

Loving You Makes You Mine

George Jones

Just for a moment I hold you
Each time someone mentions your name
And it happens each time that I see you
And the feelings inside are the same.

You are the dream I keep dreamin'
Each night when I drift off to sleep
Though it's only in dreams that I hold you
You are with me and I am complete.

But somehow I never quit hoping
That I will hold you in time
Till then it's nexts years tomorrow
Just lovin' you makes you mine.

You set a fire to my feelin's
Each time that I look in your eyes
You smile and I climb up to heaven
There's a rainbow from earth to the sky.

But somehow I never quit hoping
That I will hold you in time
Till then it's nexts years tomorrow
Just lovin' you makes you mine...
