

No No Never

George Jones

Sweetheart, did you think I'd be untrue
Did you think I'd ever cheat on you
No, no, no, no never.

Sweetheart, did you think that I'm the kind
Or that I'd ever change my mind
No, no, no, no never.

Oh, won't you be my little wife
Let me love you all my life
'Cause don't you know I'm inclined
I want your lovin' all time.

Sweetheart, did you think I'd be untrue
Did you think I'd ever cheat on you
No, no, no, no never.

Sweetheart, did you think the sun would shine
If I couldn't have you all the time
No, no, no, no never.

Sweetheart, did you think I'd ever try
Do you think I'd ever make you cry
No, no, no, no never.

Well, won't you be my little wife
And let me love you all my life
'Cause you know that I'm inclined
I want your lovin' all the time.

Sweetheart did you think it would make you blue
To treat me as sweetly as you do
No, no, no, no never.

Sweetheart, did you think it would make you blue
To treat me as sweetly you do
No, no, no, no never...
