

World's Worst Loser

George Jones

I've been called the world's worst loser
And I don't doubt a moment that it's true
But I can't smile pretending I won't miss you
I'm the world's worst loser when I'm losing you

I may even cry when it's over
And make fun of yours somebody new
But I'll hold on as long as I can because
I'm the world's worst loser when I'm losing you

I may even cry when it's over
And make fun of yours somebody new
But I'll hold on as long as I can because
I'm the world's worst loser when I'm losing you
Yes, I'm the world's worst loser when I'm losing you
