

Free me

Gladiator

Anything my hands have craved anyway my hands have craved the ONE's by me
anytime my eyes have closed anyway my eyes have closed
the ONE's by me
Now I'm here, now I'm there it does not matter you're what really matters

Free me world
I will wait
free me world
don't be late thrill me girl you'll be craved by me free me girl
our world was made just keep thrilling over - over - over my anxious fate glitters - glitters by you

What's the sense of today's day what's the sense of today's night
the ONE's by me
what's the sense of this living what's the sense of next living you know who I mean

When was the time I touched a love when first time I had touched you when the Gods made a love anyway I carved my mind anyway I carved my love the ONE is still by me
