

My world

Gladiator

I want to tell you of earthquake in my soul no crosses no big heads have sense for me i say this not so that i could be at the end but i wanna say it an easlier way

Blood in my veins streams so fast no path of fate
I wanna go this way now Looking at my hands I see My World!

All the places the people the moon I need and my music and my band I couldn't be without them but these things have nothin' nothin' for you it's my own sacrifice and reborn
