

Shine for people

Gladiator

I'm dizzy, man I can't rule it
Where is the end of my way?

Somebody is going through my body
I cannot move piece of my body
I know I'm leaving my body

Where is the end of my way?
I'm still waiting and I want it

And I hope my god is there
He is waiting for people
I see god, I see the shine for people
I'm starting to open the sky
I'm starting to open the door for people
