

Once

Glen Hansard & Markéta Irglová

Part of me has died
Won't return
Part of me wants to hide
the part that's burned

Once, once
I knew how to talk to you
Once, once
But not anymore

Hear the sirens call me home (3x)
Hear the sirens call me home

Part of me has died
To watch it burn
And the heart of me has tried
Look what it's become

Once, once
I knew how to look for you
Once, once
But that was before
Once, once
I would have laid down and died for you
Once, once
But not anymore

Hear the sirens call me home (5x)
Hear the sirens call me home
