Extra, Extra

extra, extra! read all about it! everYone in every state thinks everyone is free. i don't know, i have a feeling every form of media is fucking with our heads and filling us full of shit. that's ok, they're so fucking lame , they're so lame, they're so fucking lame. i don't know, i think i heard about a guy that bought a gun and went on a killing spree because of something he saw on tv. every time i read the paper i get more disgusted then the time i read before.
