Love In Motion

Golden Earring

Oh, oh my love's in motion Yeah, you've got me on the run Yeah, yeah, yeah, baby 'cross the ocean That's where daddy points his gun

The truth comes out Your lies are never fast enough The truth comes out Like a pain in your sweet little ass dear

Take a ride on a slow train

Take a good look at your memory

Think it all over again

Make a choice and make sure you've decided

Mmm.., my love's in motion You've got me on the run Yeah, yeah, yeah my love's in motion Everything's upside down

Two fine hearts
They don't cheat, 'cause they're meant to last
Two fine hearts, they bleed when they're torn apart
Do not think I'm a bad boy
Maybe just a little broken toy
I've gotta thank you babe
Before I turn around, turn around

Oh, oh my love's in motion Yeah, you've got me on the run Oh, oh baby 'cross the ocean That's where daddy points his gun

Yeah my love's in motion
Oh, you've got me on the run
Yeah yeah baby 'cross the ocean
That's where daddy points his gun
My love's in motion
Everything's upside down
