

There will be a tomorrow

Golden Earring

Every day is like a dream to me
Baby, I'm more in love than any man could be
The moment that I see you, make me happy like I wish

And there will be a tomorrow
With a moment just like this
And there will be a tomorrow
Which will give me what I wish
Tomorrow

When I try to sleep at night
Then I feel what it means to miss you even while
That moment that you left me was a moment to forget

Cuz there will be a tomorrow
We'll forget all that we had
And there will be a tomorrow
There's no time to be so sad
Tomorrow
