Calling Me Names

Calling, calling

Good Old War

You should blame yourself You and no one else You can say you're not But you were guilty as well Instead of making sense And talking like we're friends You think it's a better idea Calling, calling Calling me names Don't think it's gonna change me Calling me names Calling, calling Calling me names Don't think it's ever gonna change me Calling me names Calling, calling me names The nights you talk about I always forget Something I did or something I should not have said And when I think we're good It happens again You think it's a better idea Calling, calling Calling me names Don't think it's gonna change me Calling me names Calling, calling Calling me names Don't think it's ever gonna change me Calling me names Calling, calling me names You should blame yourself You and no one else You can say you're not But you were guilty as well Instead of making sense And talking like we're friends You think it's a better idea Calling, calling Calling me names Don't think it's gonna change me Calling me names Calling, calling Calling me names Don't think it's ever gonna change me Calling me names

Calling me names
Don't think it's gonna change me
Calling me names
Calling, calling

Calling me names
Don't think it's ever gonna change me
Calling me names
Calling, calling me names
