

Glass Jaw

Graham Parker

I got a real wooden heart girl, sometimes it's hard to ignite i t
I must have water for blood girl, but don't cut me out or write me off
You turn stone into flesh baby and I almost get human Yeah and it's always the best baby, I hear your heart pitter pa tter
I feel your love start to shatter

My glass jaw, and you can break this door
and you can take me for, whatever you want

I got a head full of rocks girl, shake me around and I rattle
I must have ice here in blocks girl, being alive is a battle I, I want to win when you're with me that's when things really happen
Yeah even grin when you're with me, you're arms around really b it yeah
You know the right place to hit it

My glass jaw, and you can break this door
and you can take me for, whatever you want

Ooh you turn stone into flesh baby and I almost get human Yeah it's always the best baby, I hear your heart pitter patter
And then your love start to shatter

My glass jaw, and you can break this door

Oooh glass jaw, and you can break this door and you can take, take me for, whatever you want whatever you want, whatever you want
