Tangled Up In Blue

Great White

Early one mornin' the sun was shinin' I was layin' in bed Wond'rin' if she'd changed at all If her hair was still red

Her folks they said our lives together Sure was gonna be rough They never did like Mama's homemade dress Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough

And I was standin' on the side of the road Rain fallin' on my shoes Heading out for the East Coast Lord knows I've paid some dues gettin' through

Tangled up in blue

She was married when we first met Soon to be divorced I helped her out of a jam, I guess But I used a little too much force

We drove that car as far as we could Abandoned it out west Split up on a dark sad night Both agreeing it was best

She turned around to look at me
As I was walkin' away
I heard her say, over my shoulder
We'll meet again someday on the avenue

Tangled up in blue

I had a job in the great north woods Working as a cook for a spell I never did like it all that much And one day the axe just fell

So I drifted down to New Orleans Where I was lucky to be employed Workin' for a while on a fishin' boat Right outside of Delacroix

But all the while I was alone
The past was close behind
I seen a lot of women
But she never escaped my mind and I just grew

Tangled up in blue

She was workin' in a topless place And I stopped in for a beer I just kept lookin' at the side of her face In the spotlight so clear

And later on the crowd thinned out

I's just about to do the same
She was standing there in back of my chair
Sayin', Jackie, don't I know your name?

I muttered somethin' underneath my breath She studied the lines on my face I must admit I felt a little uneasy When she bent down to tie the laces of my shoe

Tangled up in blue

She lit a burner on the stove and offered me a pipe I thought you'd never say hello, she said, you look like the silent type Then she opened up a book of poems and handed it to me Written by an Italian poet from the thirteenth century

And every one of them words rang true
And glowed like burnin' coal
Pourin' off of every page
Like it was written in my soul from me to you

Tangled up in blue

I lived with them on Montague Street In a basement down the stairs There was music in the cafes at night And revolution in the air

Then he started into dealing with slaves And something inside of him died She had to sell everything she owned And froze up inside

And one day finally the bottom fell out I became withdrawn The only thing I knew how to do Was to keep on keepin' on like a bird that flew

Tangled up in blue

So now I'm goin' back again
I got to get to her somehow
All the people we used to know
They're an illusion to me now

Some are mathematicians
Some are carpenter's wives
Don't know how it all got started
I don't know what they're doin' with their lives

But me, I'm still on the road Headin' for another joint We always did feel the same We just saw it from a different point of view
