

The Path To Certainty

Gwen Stacy

Down, down again
My day has come
A captive of my fate

Where are you now?

A dark cloud approaches
Don't let me go
Not now, not ever
Don't let me go

When will I see the sun again

Swallow your pride, let me lift you up
So I can make you whole again
You're not dead, Im not dead
My son your not alone

Crawl in humility
Before you walk in honor

There is a world of deceit in all of us

All is not lost yet
I am not dead yet
