Dig down deep where the ground is cold (Dark and cold and all alone) Tired of life all alone and Blue happiness I never knew In this cold world There's nothing for me now Won't you hear my only plea And bury me deep Where the sun doesn't shine Because sunshine I've never known Dig down deep where the ground is cold Dark and cold and all alone You were my love Only love I knew And tonight I find I can't have you Trouble and tears are all that I see Now you are gone please hear my plea Bury me deep where the sun...