

Cuba Rhumba

Hank Snow

Now if you're gonna cruise be sure that you'll choose Habana
Where the waters are green by that old Caribbean sea
And if you stay awhile you'll soon like their style of rhythm
You'll learn the Cuba Rhumba the dance that everyone does
And when you dance with the sweet senorita you meet in the moon light
You'll forget way of prom and you'll never want to come home
And in a tropical way you'll learn how to say manana
And the Cuba Rhumba will have you under its spell
If you'll hear Spanish guitars out under the stars in Cuba
While the dancers are swayin' as long as I'm playin' tune
And if you're tappin' your feet in the beat of that native musi c
Then the Cuba Rhumba has got you under its spell
Beneath the tropical sky you'll be tryin' to step to the rhythm
And you'll shout all day in the way the native all do
And then you'll walk in a trance and just want to dance to Rhum ba
Yes the Cuba Rhumba will have you under its spell
