

Rebel Within

Hank Williams III

The bottles gettin' lower again my friend
And the hard times are trying it's best to win
The bottles gettin' lower again my friend
Let's get damn loud and show the rebel within

The bottles getting lower again my friend
So do yourself a shot and let's start to sin
The bottles getting lower again my friend
So let's light up a smoke and live hard till the end

Yea I'll do it right and you can do it wrong
Just look out darling cause you know I'm cock strong
You can do me right and I'll do you wrong
Look out darling cause I'm showin you the rebel within

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) again
(Till dawn) again

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) again
(Till dawn) again

The more I try to keep on hangin on,
It makes me feel like I've lost everything I've owned
Maybe it was all the hell I raised,
Or it might of been the whiskey that I drank for days
Was it cause I don't fit in,
Or maybe it was cause I had the devil as a friend
Hell I know I never made momma proud,
So let's live it up and you can shoot it down again.

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) again
(Till dawn) again

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) I'm showing you the rebel within

(Rebel within, rebel within)

The more I try to do right, it just seems wrong
I guess that's the curse of livin' out my songs
Born of bad blood since day number one
Hell I was worse off than a loaded gun
The life I lead has always been fast and mean
But I never let the hard times make me weak

The bottles gettin' lower again my friend again
So let's get damn loud and show the rebel within
And I'll do it right and you can do it wrong
Just Look out darlin' cause you know I'm cock strong
You can do me right and I'll do you wrong

Look out darlin' cause I'm showing you the rebel within

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) again
(Till dawn) again

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) again
(Till dawn) again

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) again
(Till dawn) again

(I'm drunk) again
(And stoned) again
(Let's fuck) again
(Till dawn) again

The rebel within
The rebel within
The rebel within
The rebel within
