

Inside Me

Hanker

I have been hiding in my own dreams
I have been yearning for a real escape
I have been watching on and on the film
I have been hoping changing all my fate
All my fate

Inside me
Inside me

I have been willing like all human beings
What should I choose between Love and Hate?
I have been crying inside all my screams
I have been praying and calling all the Saints
All the Saints

Special:
Outta control
I'm gonna explode
Outta control
Deep in my soul

I have been sleeping in my own dreams
What should I choose between Love and Hate
I have been shouting after all the Saints
They want me bad, they want me vain
They want me vain

I'm trapped!
