

Baby (You're So Fine)

Hanson

When I see you, uh huh, my heart fills with flames
When I met you, uh huh, my body went lame
Now that I know you, uh huh, I just wanna scream
And, baby, don't you know you've got a special quality
A special quality

Baby, you're so fine
Oh, I'm so glad you're mine
Baby, you're so fine, oh
Baby, you're so fine
Oh, how I love you, baby
Baby, you're so fine
Oh yeah

The sun would rise for you
Oh, it will not for me
The sun would set for you
Oh, how you set my heart free
The sun would rise for you
Oh, it will not for me
The sun would set for you
Oh, how you set my heart free

Baby, you're so fine
Oh, I'm so glad you're mine
Baby, you're so fine, oh
Baby, you're so fine
Oh, how I love you, baby
Baby, you're so fine

You've got me crazy

You're so fine in my mind
All of the time
You're so fine

Baby, you're so fine
Oh, how you blow my mind
Baby, you're so fine, oh
Baby, you're so fine
Oh, how I love you, baby
Baby, you're so fine
Oh, baby, you're so fine, fine
Baby, baby, baby, baby

Baby, you're so fine
Oh, how you blow my mind
Baby, you're so fine

Baby, you're so fine
Oh, I'm so glad you're mine
Baby, you're so fine

Now this ball-and-chain it can't be love
I was so lonely inside
Life was so dark until you saved my soul
But you made everything all right

All right

Baby, you're so fine
Baby, you're so fine
