

Thinking 'Bout Somethin'

Hanson

Well I gave you love, you know it
So when did you outgrow it
And decide that you would find another man?

Well you've been out there shakin
Tell the boys you're chansing
When you get home, I'll be the bigger man

I've been thinkin bout somethin
I've been thinkin bout somethin other than you

Well I know your reputation
Cause you send my heart racing
You think I would always be the fool

Well I've run out of patience
For this sticky situation
You won't find me crying that we're through

I've been thinkin bout somethin
I've been thinkin bout somethin other than you
It's sad to say, but baby everyday
I've been thinkin bout somethin
I've been thinkin bout somethin other than you
It's sad to say, hey

Well if you're not too proud to beg
I can give you some respect
That tune you're humming is never gonna change

You didn't have to do what you did
I didn't think you'd end it like this Cause the love I've got it better than what you gave

Well I've got girls in line
Waiting for these arms of mine
Listen up to what I say

I've been thinkin bout somethin
I've been thinkin bout somethin other than you
It's sad to say, but baby everyday
I've been thinkin bout somethin
I've been thinkin bout somethin other than you

Hey, hey, I took my best shot
I've had enough of your tainted love you give me everyday
I tried to limit the loney nights
But darlin please, c'mon c'mon
I'm not gonna make that same mistake

You've been out there foolin, but I'm not thinkin bout you
I've been getting the love that moves me, while you've been getting around

You've been out there foolin, but I'm not thinkin bout you
I've been getting the love that moves me, while you've been getting around

You've been out there foolin, but I'm not thinkin bout you

I've been getting the love that moves me, while you've been getting around
