

Lay It All to Waste

Hatebreed

Lay it all to waste!
Yeah!

What they think is not always your business
What they say is not of your concern
But if you want to let it in
At least let it fuel your desire to win

Not every claim that they level against you
Should stoke the flame of all you attest too

We feel pray against still only few pretend [?]
Across these ends will come if you self-destruct

If you fear the change
If you fail to gain
You'll never see the second coming of the age

Tomorrow's too fuckin' late
For the moment to be saved
Tomorrow's too fuckin' late
If there is something that needs to be laid to waste

Lay it all to waste!

You're only given so many horizons
Embrace the ones that you got

But take heed on certain waters
And in your battles never relent

Disburse when you've lost your breath [?]
Take what is right to take
Forge ahead on the open road
But the worst in the wake

Tomorrow's too fuckin' late
For the moment to be saved
Tomorrow's too fuckin' late
If there is something that needs to be laid to waste

Lay it all to waste!
Lay it all to waste!
Lay it all to waste!
Lay it all to waste!
And leave the rest in the wake!
