Blank pages are a loaded gun
These phases all end at once
Please tell me what you want to hear right now
It doesn't matter how
These days I can't live without
The way you always try to bring me down

I feel so temporary
Throw me away for an ordinary life
You know you've done it once or twice
You know you've done it, done it
(2x)

The clock is already done
Time is gone
This all went wrong
(Yeah we're waiting for the backup plan)
Take me by the hand
Please try to make me understand
The choice is made
Now it's too late
I'll exit now into an early grave

I feel so temporary
Throw me away for an ordinary life
You know you've done it once or twice
You know you've done it, done it
(2x)

The clock's done tickling second chances (I feel so)
The clock's done, darling (Temporary)
(4x)

I feel so temporary
Throw me away for an ordinary life
You know you've done it once or twice
You know you've done it, done it
(3x)
