

Spark

Hawthorne Heights

Forgetting scene and deafening sound.
I walk the Halls and there's no one around.
The bells ring out, the bells ring out, but there's no one around.

Remember the place that we used to go?
We'd scream so loud and lose control.
Maybe we got too old
So just let go, just let go
(And lose control)

Maybe I'll start a fire and maybe I'll just be a spark.
I can't live in the dark, I know one day I'll burn as bright as the sun.
Maybe I'll soar in the stars or maybe I'll end up too far.
I can't live on the run, I know one day I'll burn as bright as the sun.

The street lights are flickering out, I walk the haunts in my hometown.
The sun went down, the sun went down, and there's no one around.

Remember the place that we used to go?
We'd scream so loud and lose control.
Maybe we got too old
So just let go, just let go
(And lose control)

Maybe I'll start a fire and maybe I'll just be a spark.
I can't live in the dark, I know one day I'll burn as bright as the sun.
Maybe I'll soar in the stars or maybe I'll end up too far.
I can't live on the run, I know one day I'll burn as bright as the sun.

I just want to be something cause anything is better than nothing.
I'm not afraid to shine, I'm not afraid to let this go.

I just want to be something cause anything is better than nothing.
I'm not afraid to shine, I'm not afraid to let this go. I'm not afraid to lose control!

Maybe I'll start a fire and maybe I'll just be a spark.
I can't live in the dark, I know one day I'll burn as bright as the sun.

Maybe I'll soar in the stars or maybe I'll end up to far.
I can't live on the run, I know one day I'll burn as bright as the sun.