

Taken by the Dark

Hawthorne Heights

I'll say it 'till my heart explodes
Turns into nothing
I've got these visions of an open road
It takes me nowhere I wanna go

It pushes and pulls and tears me apart
It follows and leads and it ends where it starts
I'm begging, I plead to Death do his part
Until I'm taken by the Dark

There she goes, There she goes, I gotta feeling,
If I leave I'll never see her again
There she goes, There she goes, I gotta feeling,
If I leave I'll never see her again

I'll learn to overcome my sorrows
Turn them to something
I've got delusions of what I'm told
It takes me somewhere I don't wanna go

It pushes and pulls and tears me apart
It follows and leads and it ends where it starts
I'm begging, I plead to Death do his part
Until I'm taken by the Dark

There she goes, There she goes, I gotta feeling,
If I leave I'll never see her again
There she goes, There she goes, I gotta feeling,
If I leave I'll never see her again

No more in lying
I feel us dying

There she goes, There she goes,
There she goes, I'll never see her again

I apologize I couldn't understand some of the words being screamed, If anyone does please revise this submission

It pushes and pulls and tears me apart
It follows and leads and it ends where it starts

There she goes, There she goes, I gotta feeling,
If I leave I'll never see her again
There she goes, There she goes, I gotta feeling,
If I leave I'll never see her again

No more in lying
I feel us dying

There she goes, There she goes,
There she goes, I'll never see her again
