Once in a life
We lived in a sanctuary
A song could get us free
Slept behind the altar
Only the singer saw

Now is it gone, years on Times we took alone Stealing an hour, buying a night It's hard on the telephone Love outside the law Je' tant rêve du toi

Is it gone, this year
Is the song still in your ear
Or were we only high
Just the wine
Just the wine
was it Only the time?

When we're old How will are story be told Windswept smoke used by time Waiting for the bus Will that be us?

Do you recall my friend
We never thought we'd ever fall
When the salesman came to call
Selling our soul to buy
Sometimes it ain't no deal at all
Je' tant rêve du toi

Dream

Dream too much