

If Only for Tonight

Hinder

Hey pretty girl, what's your name?
Looks like we're on the same page tonight.
What's the story, what's his name?
Looks like you're in some pain, am I right?

Just like you, I can't escape
But I could use a night away from an empty home
And the hurt from it all.

If only for tonight, girl
We treat each other right, girl
Like no one ever has,
Like nothing from the past
Be on each other's side, girl
Forget about real life,
Make everything alright
If only for tonight.

What kind of man would treat you wrong?
We could talk all night long but
Your eyes make it clear.
Finish off the drink you have,
Don't worry girl, it's on my tab
Let's get out of here.

Leave the phone and hit the lights
It feels so good to feel alive,
Or to feel anything at all.

If only for tonight, girl
We treat each other right, girl
Like no one ever has,
Like nothing from the past
Be on each other's side, girl
Forget about real life,
Make everything alright
If only for tonight.

Ohh... oooh...

It's nice to know we're not alone
Don't gotta do this on our own
It'll take some time to get there.
There's more to life than what we have,
Moving on ain't so bad if it's gonna feel like this...

Even if it's only for tonight, girl
We treat each other right, girl
Like no one ever has,
Like nothing from the past
Be on each other's side, girl
Forget about real life,
Make everything alright
If only for tonight, yeah

Forget about real life,
Make everything alright,

If only for tonight.

Hey pretty girl, what's your name?

Looks like we're on the same page tonight.
