

Lonely on a Saturday Night

Hootie & The Blowfish

I just can't believe you're here alone
Sittin' in the corner while a party's going on
My heart made my feet walk up to you
There's so many things that we could do

Someone like you shouldn't be lonely (shouldn't be lonely)
Someone like you shouldn't be lonely (shouldn't be lonely)
Someone like you shouldn't be lonely
Lonely on a Saturday night
(Oh, yeah, yeah)

An angel by herself, I don't understand
Tell me where's your friends and where's your man
If I bought you a drink, would you tell me your name
'Cause if I didn't ask, I'd leave here ashamed

'Cause someone like you shouldn't be lonely (shouldn't be lonely)
Someone like you shouldn't be lonely (shouldn't be lonely)
Someone like you shouldn't be lonely
Lonely on a Saturday night
(Oh, yeah, yeah)
Lonely on a Saturday night
(Oh, yeah, yeah)

Straight off the cover of a magazine
Dancing right up close to me
Best damn woman that I've ever seen
Oh, yeah

Someone like you shouldn't be lonely
Can I be lonely with you tonight

Someone like you shouldn't be lonely (shouldn't be lonely)
Someone like you shouldn't be lonely (shouldn't be lonely)
Someone like you shouldn't be lonely
Lonely on a Saturday night
Oh, yeah, yeah
Lonely on a Saturday night
Oh, yeah, yeah
Lonely on a Saturday night
